Gold Coast Science Network (GCSN) is looking for presenters for the upcoming 2014 conference. All areas of STEM (science, engineering, technology, and math) are welcome but we are especially looking for workshops for teachers that address the common core standards and Next Generation Science Standards (NGSS). Sessions may also focus on instructional strategies and resources/organizations for STEM education, etc.

Compensation

One complimentary conference registration will be given to the lead presenter of the workshop, including continental breakfast and lunch. Please submit a registration form with payment for any co-presenters.
